Nancy,

Attached are comments for your use. I have cc'd Linda to confirm nothing is missing. When I opened it on a "real" computer, it indicated four pages, but two were blank. I don't know if a graph/chart did not show up or if it was not used. The section where the font changes are comments based on what was heard yesterday by another staff that was not satisfied either by the responses. I hope these will be of use.

Glad to have a call tomorrow morning if that helps. Could you please share with Tate?

Cheers,

Sheryl
